The Moral Rearmament Movement (Oxford Buchenites) has been holding its world assembly at Caux. A reliable source in Paris has pointed out, in this connection, that a number of rightist emigre military leaders have been invited. These generals have issued an "Appeal to the Peoples Behind the Iron Curtain" at the Assembly. The Appeal was signed by:

1. Czechoslovakia - General PRCHALA
2. Poland - Generals BOR-KOMOROWSKI and RUDNICKI
3. Yugoslavia - General ALBANDA.

Source comments that he does not know how these generals were selected. It was done in London. It seems that Bor-Komorowski debated for some time whether or not to accept the invitation, but finally did so at the suggestion of ANDERS and the Polish Combatants Association.
